The $300 registration deposit is held as a damage deposit while students are enrolled in the program. The damage deposit may be used for damage caused in homestay or residence or for textbooks that have not been returned. Upon completion of the program, the damage deposit is returned in full to all students provided that no deductions to the deposit were made.

Accommodation fees do not cover break periods in the IEP program schedule. The regular break fee is $100.00 in addition to IEP course fees. The Winter break fee for students in homestay is $200.00. Students are responsible for the cost of personal care items, public transportation, long distance telephone calls, facsimile and personal internet connections.
